

Résumé

Viraj Vora was born and raised in London, United Kingdom. He originally earned his Bachelor of Science (BSc) degree at King's College London in 2000. He then continued his educational journey in North America where he obtained a Dental degree (DDS) from the University of Western Ontario in 2005.

Dr. Vora practiced in St. Catharines as a general dentist for three years, focusing mainly on Oral Surgery and Endodontics. During this time, his passion for endodontics grew stronger which led him to enter the University of Michigan in 2008 where he earned a Master of Science (MS) degree and a certificate of specialty in Endodontics.

Throughout his academic career at the University of Michigan, Dr. Vora earned two awards for his master's research project as well as the 'Robert Ellison Award' for comprehensive knowledge of the Endodontic literature. His research was also presented at the American Association of Dental Research meeting (AADR) in Washington 2010.

After graduating, Dr. Vora worked as an endodontist in private practice in London Ontario for nearly two years, after which he decided to open his own office in Vaughan.

Dr. Vora is a registered Endodontic specialist in Canada and is a Fellow of the Royal College of Dentists of Canada (FRCDC). He is also a Diplomate of the American Board of Endodontics.

Dr. Vora holds a faculty position at the University of Western Ontario as a clinical instructor, lecturer and examiner of the undergraduate Endodontics program. He is a guest lecturer at the University of Michigan and a member of the American Association of Endodontists and the Canadian Academy of Endodontics. He is also part of the scientific advisory board for the Journal of Endodontics.

In his spare time, Dr. Vora likes to keep fit by going to the gym regularly and mountain biking. His other hobbies include all aspects of computer technology as well as building things.
